critics. In 2008, Kher participated in the Guinness World Record for the most celebrity duets in an album in the Guinness World Records, which he performed with actor Irrfan Khan and singer Sonu Nigam. 2011: Breakthrough in Bollywood In 2011, he starred in Aashiqui 2 opposite Priyanka Chopra and Aamir Khan, for which he received positive reviews. The film became the highest-grossing Bollywood film of 2011, earning Kher critical praise. The film became one of the highest-grossing Indian films of all time and emerged as one of the most popular Bollywood films of 2011. Kher's performance was universally praised; Raja Sen wrote in The Times of India: "For an actor who can be typecast, Anupam Kher's is one of the best performances of 2011. Of course he has always been good, but this time around, he has finally gotten comfortable with his character". In 2012, Kher received the Filmfare Award for Best Actor for his performance in Aashiqui 2. The film was the 10th highest-grossing film of the year. In his performance, he was appreciated for being the right fit for the role. Sanjib Sabu also appreciated his performance, and praised Kher for bringing out the inner complexity of his character: "Kher adds an important dimension to the part. Although Aamir Khan gets the accolades, it's the subtle depth of Kher's character that makes it special". He 82157476af
